In these Bylaws:

- “Act” means the Societies Act of British Columbia as amended from time to time;
“Directors” means the directors of the Society for the time being;
“Board” means the directors of the Society for the time being and acting as a body;
“Bylaws” means these Bylaws as altered from time to time;
“Senior Managers” – any individual who has been appointed by the directors to exercise the directors’ authority to manage some of the activities or affairs of the society;
“Registered address” refers to the address of a member as recorded in the register of members.
“Society” means Salt Spring Literacy Society

Definitions in Act apply

1.1 The definitions in the Act apply to these Bylaws.

Conflict with Act or regulations

1.2 If there is a conflict between these Bylaws and the Act or the regulations under the Act, the Act or the regulations, as the case may be, prevail.

Part 2 – Members

The membership of the Society consists of individual members who are natural persons.

Application for membership

2.1 A person may apply to the Board for membership in the Society, and the person becomes a member on the Board’s acceptance of the application.

Directors decision to approve, postpone or refuse an application for membership

2.2 The Board may at its sole discretion approve, postpone or refuse an application for membership. The decision of the directors to approve, postpone or refuse an application for membership will be final.

Duties of members

2.3 On being admitted to membership, a member is entitled to and the Society will give the member, at the member’s request, without charge, a copy of the constitution and bylaws of the Society.

2.4 Every member must uphold the constitution of the Society and must comply with these Bylaws.

2.5 Any member may inspect the current annual report and audited financial statements of the Society, upon request and at a reasonable time, in the Society’s registered office.

Amount of membership dues

2.6 The amount of the annual membership dues, if any, must be determined by the Board.

Member not in good standing

2.7 A member is not in good standing if the member fails to pay the member's annual membership dues, if any and the member is not in good standing for so long as those dues remain unpaid.

Member not in good standing may not vote

- 2.8 A voting member who is not in good standing
- a. May not vote at a general meeting, and
 - b. Is deemed not to be a voting member for the purpose of consenting to a resolution of the voting members.

Termination of membership

- 2.9 A person's membership in the Society is terminated if one or more of the following:
- a) the person is not in good standing for 6 consecutive months;
 - b) on delivering their resignation in writing to the secretary of the Society or by mailing or delivering it to the address of the Society;
 - c) on their death or in the case of an organizational or corporate member, of dissolution; or
 - d) on being expelled

2.10 A member may be expelled by a special resolution of the members passed at a general meeting.

2.11 The notice of special resolution for expulsion will be accompanied by a brief statement of the reason or reasons for the proposed expulsion.

2.12 The person who is the subject of the proposed resolution for expulsion will be given an opportunity to be heard at the general meeting before the special resolution is put to a vote.

2.13 If a member to be expelled does not appear at a general meeting at which the special resolution to expel the member is considered, then the members present at that general meeting may speak to and vote on the special resolution, and the resolution has the same effect as if the member had an opportunity to be heard on the special resolution to expel the member.

Part 3 – General Meetings of Members

Time and place of general meeting

3.1 A general meeting must be held at the time and place the Board determines

3.2 The general meeting of the Society shall be held once in every calendar year and not more than fifteen (15) months since the previous general meeting.

Ordinary business at general meeting

- 3.3 At a general meeting, the following business is ordinary business:
- a. Adoption of rules of order;
 - b. Consideration of any financial statements of the Society presented to the meeting;
 - c. Consideration of the reports, if any, of the directors or auditors;
 - d. Election or appointment of directors;
 - e. Appointment of an auditor, if any;
 - f. Business arising out of a report of the directors not requiring the passing of a special resolution.

Notice of special business

3.4 Notice of any annual, general or special meeting shall be deemed to be given to every member if mailed to the registered address of that member, or emailed to the email address on file, or handed to the member.

3.5 A notice of a general meeting must state the nature of any business, other than ordinary business, to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to permit a member receiving the notice to form a reasoned judgment concerning that business.

Chair of general meeting

3.6 The following individual is entitled to preside as the chair of a general meeting:

- a. The individual, if any, appointed by the Board to preside as chair;
- b. If the Board has not appointed an individual to preside as the chair or the individual appointed by the Board is unable to preside as the chair,
